RED CROSS DINNER

Over 60 workers attended the dinner at Oak Hall Wednesday, to initiate the 1952 Fund Drive of the American Red Cross in Polk County. Henry Hart, chairman of the local chapter, introduced Mr. and Mrs. Ben White, co-chairmen of the Drive. Mr. White welcomed the workers and after a few preliminary instructions introduced Mrs. Paul Culberson, executive secretary of the chapter. Mrs. Culberson told of the many activities of the local Red Cross in 1951. In 5 visits to Polk County the Bloodmobile has collected 609 pints of blood, part of which has been used in civilian hospitals and part shipped to Korea. 99 pints have been administered in our own St. Luke's Hospital. The Asheville Blood Center has shipped out 49 pints without charge as always, for the use of Polk County residents in Spartanburg General Hospital, the Baptist Hospital of Winston-Salem, Duke University Hospital and Mary Black Hospital in Spartanburg. Mrs. Culberson again stressed the fact that any resident of Polk County can obtain free Red Cross blood in any part of the United States, on request. The various aids to service men and veterans under Home Service and Production and Supply were outlined, as well as classes available in home nursing and first aid, and the work of the Junior Red Cross.

Mrs. Norme Frost next talked of her years of service with the Red Cross in Africa, where she worked in hospitals, with the Clubmobile Unit, and in Red Cross Clubs. Except for moderate charges for food in these clubs, Mrs.
