CURB REPORTER

Weather: high 61, low 34, Rel. Hum. 32 . . According to W. M. Bissell EPH GOODLOE says, "I am in charge of the stork department, but it seems to be in all the papers that Queen Elizabeth is expecting another heir. Come to think of it, come election time, we're expecting somebody to get a little "air" over here!". . G. A. Davis has accepted ELECTROLUX dealership and not the electrical service as reported in an ad . . These are busy times for many people. Movies at three theatres, Services at the Landrum First Baptist Church every night for two weeks; Duplicate bridge tournament tonight at Oak Hall; County Basketball tournament at Columbus; the Two Mrs. Carrolls, the Tryon Little Theatre play at the Tryon School tonight at 8:30 and Friday night, too. See it one of the nights and you'll appreciate the fine work people of the Theatre are doing . . Union Lenten service Friday at 5 p. m. at Congregational Church. Friday night is the night for Republican precinct meetings in Tryon, Mill Spring, Columbus, and Green Creek at 7:30 at all places, making plans for the County Convention on Saturday at 2:30 p. m. at Court House in Columbus. "The Man in the Green Shirt", a comedy in 3 acts will be at the Edmund Embury School tonight at 8:30. And the RED CROSS campaign is underway with many workers all over the county on errands of mercy. Just a few things to claim our interest this week.

John B. Willard

John Boyd Willard, 74, of Landrum, RFD 1, died suddenly Tuesday afternoon at the home of his son, George L. Willard in Landrum.

He was born in South Carolina, but had been making his home with his daughter, Mrs Bessie Mae McKinney, in the Sandy Plains section of Polk County.

He was the son of the late Bud and Sallie Hart Willard and was a member of the Sandy Plains A. R. P. Church.

Willard was twice married, his first wife being Miss Maude Gallman, and from this union one son survives, George L. Willard of Landrum.

He is survived by his second wife the former Miss Julia Allen and from this union three daughters, Mrs. Bessie Mae McKinney of Landrum RFD, 1, Mrs. Lois Greenway, Landrum, Rt. 1, and Miss Betty Willard of Tryon Rt. 1; one son, J. P. Willard, Hampton, Va.; one step daughter, Miss Nora Pruitt and one step son, Victor Pruitt, both of Tryon Route One.

Also two sisters, Mrs. Lona Gault of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. Vinnie White of Union, S. C. and ten grandchildren.

Funeral services Thursday at 3 p. m. in Sandy Plains Presbyterian church with the Rev. James Bell officiating. Burial in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers: Joe Stockton, Troy Morris, Harold Durham, Mack Watson, Troy Durham, and Charles Stockton.
