Vo. 25—No. 35 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 19, 1952

Weather Tuesday: High 64, low 39, rain before 5 p. m., .06, Rel. Hum. 70 . . . . Taft supporters have majority of delegates in the State Republican convention which met in Charlotte Tuesday, but Herbert F. Seawell Jr., an Eisenhower backer was nominated for governor. In the Minnesota primary the name of Eisenhower was written in by over 108,000 voters. Stassen, whose name was on the ticket received 114,000 votes in the first returns of about two-thirds of the votes. Taft had nearly 16,000 written in votes . . . . John Paul . . . , an executive of the Duke Power Co., and editor of the Duke Power Magazine, Charlotte, has been nominated for governor of the 280th Rotary District. Mr. Lucas is a former college instructor, journalist and is a popular speaker at various civic clubs throughout this area. Always looking to the future and pointing out the opportunities for us as individuals and communities he is an inspiration to any audience; and Rotary Clubs of this district are fortunate in having such an able, conscientious leader, who is always ready to give his time and personality to public welfare. He is a frequent visitor to Tryon and has addressed other civic clubs here
