

Desk copy

(Est. 1-31-28)

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

5c Per Copy

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 44 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, APRIL 1, 1952

THE GOLF REPORTER

Weather Monday: high 67, low 41, rain .24, Rel. Hum. 83. Precipitation for March 13.73 inches. . . Good weather is promised for the Gynkhana Saturday, 2:30 p. m. at Harmon Field. . . Miss Myrtle Edwin, directing the senior class play, "The Little Dog Laughs" says the audience will get its money in fun and at the same time help the seniors raise money for their educational trip to Washington, D. C., Hugh F. Norton, the photographer, has pictures of the Junior Horse Show on display at the Tack Shop. . . Congratulations to Buchanan's on its 21st anniversary in Tryon.

One of the prettiest sights in Tryon tomorrow will be the spread of a thousand Azaleas in all their flashing colors and sparkling foliage on the lawn of the Episcopal Church. It's the climax of the big Azalea Sale, which the Men's Club of that church is conducting. All those who have placed orders in advance are invited to pick up their plants at 9 o'clock or as late thereafter as possible. Although advance orders have gone far above expectations, there will still be hundreds of Azaleas for those who have waited to choose their plants from display.

New patients admitted to St. Luke's Hospital include Miss Mary Carpenter, Miss Alice Stewart, Tryon; James Ponder, Mill Spring; Miss Margaret K. Groce, Tryon Route 1; a daughter born March 29 to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peeler, Campobello, S. C. Patients discharged include Mrs. Ansel Peace, Mrs. W. E. Kuhn, Tryon; Mrs. Faye Pittman, Landrum; Howard Hall, Lake Toxaway; Mrs. Hicks McAbee and baby, Mill Spring.

TODAY, APRIL 1ST

Today marks the opening of the annual campaign to raise necessary funds to meet St. Luke's Hospital's operating deficit. This year's goal is $10,000.

The question is sometimes asked, "Why can't the hospital operate without deficits?"

Any voluntary, non-profit hospital worthy of the name administers to the needs of human beings with the primary thought—"what is the need?" The question of payment cannot be considered before the sick are treated or before broken bones are set. Payment comes later.

So long as there are human beings, just so long will there be persons requiring medical services and hospital treatment. Just as certainly as there are people, there will be those who have been unable to save money for emergencies. Indeed, daily bread is frequently a problem. Obviously, such unfortunates cannot possibly meet bills covering hospitalization. Polk County's limited finances are not sufficient to permit full payment for such cases.

The annual campaign for funds to meet an operating deficit is really the opportunity for the public to help those who cannot help themselves.

Recent arrivals at Oak Hall include Mrs. Kathryn W. McEntire and daughter, Miss Sue, student at Woman's College, Greensboro; O. H. McClain, Salisbury; Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Mendenhall and daughters, Bethany, Mary, Cornelia. Dr. Mendenhall is professor of history at Yale; A. N. Oakley, N. Y. C.; G. T. Hug,

Continued On Back Page