

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 45 TRYON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 2, 1952

Weather Tuesday: high 68, low 50, rain .60, Rel. Hum. 82 . . Today is a full day in Tryon with a meeting of the 10 District Medical Society bringing 100 doctors and their wives. It convenes at 2:30 at the Parish House. The wives will be taken on a tour and visit to Pearson's Falls while the doctors are holding their clinics. The combined groups will have a dinner tonight at 7:30 at Oak Hall. . . And this afternoon Tryon's new high school building will be dedicated with an appropriate program featured by an address by D. Hiden Ramsey, vice chairman of the State Board of Education and also vice president of the Asheville Citizen-Times. The public is invited to the open house following the program. . . Oak Hall is also full of pretty girls modeling the Deep Country Clothes advertised in the Bulletin . . . Today is the day of the big sale of Azaleas by the Men's Club of the Episcopal Church. When one takes a look at the beautiful display of Azaleas in W. L. (Pop) Burnette's yard on Grady Ave. it creates a desire to have something like it in your own yard . . . Chairman Jim Marshall of the Gymkhana committee invites everybody, young and old to take part in the events Saturday

—Continued on Back Page—

Dedicate School Today

The dedication program for the new Tryon High School will be held at 1:30, Wednesday afternoon, April 2.

The program will include Invocation by James Johnson, President of the Senior Class; song by Tryon High School Glee Club; presentation of guests by superintendent; group singing by entire assembly; introduction of speaker by superintendent; address by D. Hiden Ramsey; and closing song by Glee Club. Mrs. Clarence Rhodes will direct the Glee Club and lead the group singing.

Following the program everybody is invited to inspect both the old and new buildings and to visit with classroom teachers.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Martin are parents of a daughter, Pamela Anne, born Tuesday, April 1 at 2:37 p. m. at St. Lukes Hospital. She weighed seven pounds.

M. B. Owens of Saluda was discharged from the hospital.

Recent arrivals at Buckingham Inn include Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Clark, Camden, Maine; Donald F. Ailien, Throop, Pa; Miss M. G. Scott, Mrs. John Stoop, Fort Wayne, Ind; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hoffman and Miss Wakeman, Berea, Ohio; W. C. Smith Jr., Charlotte; Mr. and W. Noyes, Somerville, Mass.; M. P. Collins, Atlanta; Stanislas Czertwertynski, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Both, Cleveland, O.

R. T. Whalen of Richland, Mich. has arrived in Tryon to join Mrs. Whalen at the Baker Woodview cottage.