W. L. "Pop" Burnett

Walter Lester Burnett, 72, affectionately known as Pop Burnett, died of a heart attack shortly after midnight Thursday at 12:35.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Tryon Methodist Church of which he was a member. Rev. Paul F. Davis, pastor, and Rev. Henry Hearn of the Baptist church will officiate. Interment will be at Yarborough Chapel at Cross Anchor, S. C.

Mr. Burnett was a native of Spartanburg County, Hobbyville community. He gave up his farming interests in 1920 and moved to Hendersonville and from there came to Tryon in 1927 to operate Edgewood Inn, now Buckingham Inn, for about seven years, until he retired. He later operated Pop's Place.

His chief hobby was developing his flower garden.

Mr. Burnett is survived by his widow, Mrs. Helen Burnett; one daughter, Mrs. R. L. Dover, Jacksonville, Fla; two sons, Ernest and R. C. Burnett of Tryon; one sister, Mrs. Etolia Layton, Hobbyville, S. C.; three brothers, E. C. Wendell of Spartanburg, and Lafayette of Columbia, S. C.
