Flood in South Dakota makes over 1,000 homeless . . . Western Union Telegraph giving limited service during strike . . . Telephone strike set for today . . . It's going to cost more to talk or write . . . The big steel strike is set for Tuesday . . . Congratulations to T. N. Wilcox of Tryon on his latest poultry success published elsewhere in today's Bulletin . . . Richardson & Karsten's Boxer won first place as best local dog in show at the Greenville show Saturday. Roy Pender Pepper, 15-months old, won the puppy class last year at Asheville. And "The Little Dog Laughed" will be presented again Tuesday morning at 8:45 at the Tryon School for the benefit of those who couldn't see it last Friday. Those who saw it say it is one of the best. The Seniors are trying to raise money to pay for their trip to Washington. . . More good news showing progress here: Postmaster G. I. Henderson states that the Tryon post office took in over $3,000 more business this past quarter than for the same period last year.

Say you saw it in the Bulletin.

GYMKHANA RESULTS

Approximately 700 persons attended the annual Gymkhana events held Saturday afternoon at Harmon Field under the sponsorship of the Tryon Riding and Hunt Club

Jim Marshall, head of the arrangements committee, was assisted by James G. Ferguson, George Webster and Mrs. George Gagnier.

First place winners in the various events were announced as follows:

Fred Swann at Kiwanis

Fred Swann will be in charge of the Kiwanis program next Tuesday and will have as his guest speaker, Rev. Paul F. Davis, pastor of the Tryon Methodist Church

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Milner and small daughter, Judy have moved here from Minneapolis Minn. and are guests at Buckingham Inn. With them are the secretary, Miss Ruth Borly and the nurse, Miss Jean Peterson. The Milners bought the P. T. Colbron place near Columbus last year, and hope to be in their home sometime next week.
