Vol. 25—No. 51 TRYON, N. C.

THURSDAY, APRIL 10, 1952

Weather Wednesday: High 70, low 40, Rel. Hum. . . . Farmer Gray reported this morning that a tractor and trailer loaded with hay burned up on Highway No. 176 a mile below Landrum about 6 o'clock today. Property of H. R. Ballenger, Inman . . . An earthquake from Texas to Iowa shook a lot of property around Wednesday. Cause said to be that part of the earth is over a buried mountain range which was shifting about . . . Betty Wills writing in Spartanburg Herald says: "The Civic League of Landrum, which is all of 42 years old, has five charter members, all active in civic work of some kind although some of them no longer live at Landrum. Mrs. W. M. Lambright, Mrs. R. L. Lee and Miss May Landrum are still in the original league and Mrs. Lambright is serving as president this year. Mrs. McDuff Turner of Spartanburg, who has meant much to civic club work here was another charter member. Mrs. C. W. Kittrell, now of Tryon, N. C. is a fourth and Mrs. Hattie Brown now of Texas, is the fifth."

Mrs. C. C. Hindman was admitted to St. Luke's Hospital. The following patients were discharged: William Blackwell, Landrum; Mrs. Alice Stewart, Tryon and Mrs. Howard Hancock, Spartanburg.
