

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 53 TRYON, N. C.

MONDAY, APRIL 14, 1952

Weather Friday: high 84, low 48, Rel. Hum. 35, Saturday high 78, low 56, Rel. Hum. 60 Sunday high 75, low 58, rain .70, Rel. Hum. 62 . . This beautiful weather has brought out the flowers, and motor trips though the country roads are a real treat . . And the man made gardens are out of this world, so to speak. Ernest Burwell has over a thousand azaleas in bloom and the dogwoods at his place are at their peak. Any visitors in Tryon homes and at the inns and hotels will be welcomed to visit the Burwell place on Warroad. The Burwell place is one of the show places of Tryon. It has great variety with its numerous types of plants and landscape: hill tops, valleys, broad lawns, bare rock, mountains and hillsides. And the Burwells are happy to share their scenic views with others . . This is a big week in Tryon with the Horse Show on Wednesday and the Steeplechase on Saturday and dozens of parties in connection with them plus a lot of work being done by numerous committees. They say there is no other place like it where so many people give so much of their time and money to make an event so successful . . Everybody pitches in

Continued on Back Page.

Prof. James Brooks

News has been received by the Petty Funeral home of the death of Prof. James Brooks, a retired college professor, dean and president, who formerly lived at Landrum and Mill Spring. During his stay in this area he taught school at Columbus and did a lot of tutoring.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Landrum cemetery. Professor Brooks passed away at Alexandria, Va. No other details were available at the Funeral home. The survivors include Mrs. Rosa Brooks Hopson of Savannah, Ga.; Mrs. Helen Coombs, Alexandria, Va.; Prof. Robert R. Brooks, of Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., Francis Brooks of Los Angeles, and John Brooks of New York.

Prof. Brooks was a native of Maine. During his retirement in this area he was a popular speaker at various civic meetings.

Carlton Smith

News has been received in Tryon of the death of Carlton Smith, husband of the former Miss Josephine Kimberly of Neenah, Wis. and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Kimberly of Tryon and Neenah.

Among the horses entered for the Tryon Show this year, according to Secretary Ralph Gardner are ones from Wayzata, Minn., Asheville, Marion, Bent Creek, Arden, Weaverville in North Carolina, Greenville, Clover, Spartanburg, Columbia, S. C., Green Bay, Wis., Metamora, Mich., Abington, Va., Skyland, N. C., Coos Bay, Oregon, Minneapolis, Minn.