

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 56 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 1952

Weather Wednesday (Horse Show Day) high 66, low 42, Rel. Hum. 35. Results of the Horse Show will be published in Friday's Bulletin Today, Asheville Citizen and Spartanburg Herald have articles and pictures about the big event. The Citizen has six pictures; one showing Arthur Reynolds astride Susie's Error, taking the jumps; another of Mrs. Ernst Mahler presenting the Chinquapin Farms trophy to Reynolds who won permanent possession; another of Mrs. C. P. Rogers presenting the Lynncote trophy to Susie's Error; another of Wm. E. Munk and another of Miss Suzette Gagnier riding Lark Heels winner of class seven; William E. Munk was also shown making an award to Miss Elizabeth Cross. . . The Spartanburg Herald has two large pictures on front page. One of Harry Sweatt riding Reno Salome, taking the jumps to win first place in the any weight hunter class outside course. The other shows Mrs. Ernst Mahler presenting the Chinquapin trophy to J. A. Reynolds. . . The Spartanburg Journal and Asheville Times, afternoon papers may also have other pictures. The Herald had on the field Editor Charles O. Hearon; State Editor Jim Oli-

Continued on Back Page.

HOUND SHOW RESULTS

Winners of first place in the various classes of the Tryon Hound Show as reported by Mrs. Elbert F. Nanney, were as follows:

Puppy class, (6 to 8 months old), "Moonlight", owned by C. L. Brown of War, West Virginia.

Male puppy class (6 to 12 months old), "Oscar", owned by T. Ross Alexander, Statesville.

Female (under 1 year old), "Rivanna High Grade Dolly", owned by Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Pace, Palmyra, Va.

Derby males under 2 years, "Burriss Hills Setter", owned by Burriss Hills Kennels, Lincolnton, N. C.

All age males, "While Away Stride", owned by C. L. Brown.

Derby females, "Gold Hill Target", owned by Rev. Glenn Miller, Vale, N. C.

Best Natural Carriage, "Win-Away Stride", owned by C. L. Brown.

Best Hound in Show, "Alabama Girl", owned by Charlie Burrage, Concord, N. C.

Best Opposite Sex, "Burriss Hills Faun", owned by Burriss Hills Kennels, Lincolnton, N. C.

Co-manager Elbert Nanney and Ringmaster Dr. James G. K. McClure, stated that the quality of the Hound Show this year was as fine as they had ever seen. In one class there were 25 hounds competing. The Hound Show itself drew hundreds of spectators and exhibitors. Dogs were presented from Virginia, Tennessee, West Virginia, Ohio, North and South Carolina.

Boy Scout Court of Honor Monday night at Tryon High School.