

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 52—No. 61 TRYON, N. C.

THURSDAY, APRIL 24, 1952

Weather Wednesday: High 85, low 56, Rel Hum. 44 . . . The government orders $3 per ton increase in price of steel. 3,000 flood workers are trying to save the Missouri banks at Kansas City . . . Tryon baseball team defeated Clearwater Wednesday 9-0. Battery for Tryon, Ward and Phillips and Ramsey. Edwards hit a home run and two singles for Tryon. The team plays again Saturday at Harmon Field . . . Tuesday, Thursday and Saturdays are the days traders and bargain hunters looking for rare things visit the Exchange Shop operated for the benefit of St. Luke's Hospital. I visited it last Tuesday and came away without buying anything. . . thing I wanted cost $60. But there were a lot of things for $1, and on up to suit a thousand desires. It doesn't cost anything to go in and look, and it really is interesting . . . Seth Taylor who was discharged from the Marines sometime ago, is now working with Nolan Co., in Spartanburg. . . Tryon Firemen were called out Wednesday to a fire which destroyed the home of Wallace Crawford near the west bound railroad crossing on Lockhart Road . . . Fire Warden Feagan says no more trash burning permits will be issued until after it rains.

TURNER AT ROTARY

Eugene Turner, for nearly 30 years a resident of China where he was a Y.M.C.A. secretary, and later did the same work in southern Asia during World War II, will be the chief speaker at the Tryon Rotary Club Friday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall. Before the Communists took over China he was a member of the Rotary club in that Country.

Tryon Seniors At Capital

The Tryon High School seniors arrived Monday night at 7:30 in Washington, D. C., for their week's outing. They were unable to contact their home by telegraph on account of the strike. They are located at Potomac Park Motor Court, East Potomac Park, Washington 6, D. C. Telephone 9882. Miss Baldwin reports that Herbert Lineberger, Congressman Woodrow Jones' secretary gave them passes to the capitol where they can see the House and Senate and visit other important centers.

LIONS HEAR GRIFFITH

The Lions Club had a safety program Tuesday night at Oak Hall with Harold C. Griffith as the chief speaker. Eugene Jones had charge of the program. The importance of all phases of safety measures was stressed. President Clyde Tharpe gave a song that told of the happiness in singing at 40 miles per hour and of getting "Nearer My God To Thee" at 70 miles per hour.

The attendance chairman reported that 10 members of the club would have perfect attendance record for the year at the next meeting. Guests included Hugh Jack and Paul Cantrell.