

WATER!!?

[Est. 1-31-28] Published Daily Except Saturday and Sunday [5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 64 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, APRIL 29, 1952

Weather Monday: high 77, low 54, rain .08, Rel. Hum. 45. . . Water!?! . . . The exclamation for the urgent need in summer; and the question mark for when will we get it. We should not have any question. We should be able to tell our children we are providing plenty of water for your needs, your lawn, and in case your house catches on fire. If you have forgotten, there is still plenty of water to vote for water bonds if you read this before 6 p. m. The voting place closes at 6:30. . . One has to hold every copy of the Bulletin from week to week in order to keep up with the various public events. The movies are drawing big crowds now at Tryon Theatre and Lake Lanier Drive In. Mr. Smith of the Civic Theatre at Landrum says he is showing "Gobs and Gals" Wednesday night. . . Duplicate Bridge Tournament Thursday night at Oak Hall. . . Last week G. I. Henderson and R. R. Benham were first; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Crawford of Asheville, second; Mr. and Mrs. Ben White,

Continued on Back Page

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN REPORT

Over 1400 Polk County citizens have contributed approximately $6,000 to the Red Cross Campaign. Although our quota was originally set at $5,200, plus an additional $250 Disaster Relief requested at the time of the March tornadoes, Polk County's expanded activities have made it seem to set $5950 as the amount needed to cover our commitments to the National Red Cross and adequately carry out our local program. Of this $5950, $250 is being sent to meet the Disaster Relief request, and $1943.70 (or 34.1 per cent of the remainder) as Polk County's share of the National Red Cross budget. The balance retained locally thus amounts to $3756.30, or approximately $300 more than our original budget, which did not provide for an expanded program.

Since our March campaign ended, renewed disaster has struck. The story of what the Red Cross is doing to relieve the horrors of the unprecedented floods in the Missouri and Mississippi valleys will be found (but only briefly indicated) elsewhere in this Bulletin. Once more the Red Cross is obliged to ask for additional funds to finance its relief work. Since a successful campaign has met our previous commitments and our local needs, all funds received from now until June 30th will be added to the small remaining

Continued on Back Page