Buth. And more is expected. James G. K. McClure Pres. of Farmers Federation is in Mission Hospital, Asheville suffering injuries resulting from his auto leaving the highway Wednesday. Dr. McClure said he apparently went to sleep and his car left the road . . . Tryon Baseball team defeated Beacon 6-5 Wed. In Missildines show window is a group picture of F. Scott Fitzgerald, Margaret Culkin Banning, Donald Culross Peattie and Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln judging the Tryon Dog Show about 1935 . John S. Stephenson is scheduled to have the Rotary program Friday at 1 p. m. Thanks Town of Tryon for the new parking and driving lines.

IT'S NOT THE FASHION JUST THE FOLLIES

The Fourth Annual Fellowship Follies will be presented at the Congregational Church House on Friday night at 8:15. "Those who have seen The Follies in other years will not want to miss this one", says the director, "and anyone who has not attended before can be assured of an evening of fun and entertainment. This year there will be no Fashion Show, but five completely new features will be presented—good music, the Midget Melrosettes, A Morning at the Lanier Library, On a Tryon Street Corner, and a Tip Top Minstrel."

KIWANIANS SING

Craig B. Thomas had charge of the Kiwanis program Tuesday at Oak Hall and presented a musical program. Leonard Porter led the group singing, and a quartet composed of Elbert H. Arledge, Dr. C. W. McCall, Jim Gibson and Holland Brady Jr. sang several songs. Craig Thomas ended the program with a piano selection.

Sam Goodman of Spartanburg was a guest of the club.
