

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 70 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MAY 7TH, 1952

CURB REPORTER

Weather Tuesday: High 93, low 53, Rel. Hum. 49 . . . Besides Kiwanis, Rotary and a lot of church meetings, the annual meeting of the Lanier Club will be held this afternoon at the Congregational Church; the Garden Club Flower Show Thursday, May 8th, at the Parish House; the Sectional Bridge Tournament Friday night and all day Saturday at Oak Hall. And a number of political pow wows and civic groups meeting from time to time. That's enough to keep a lot of people busy. Then, too, a lot of people have found that May is a delightful time to visit Tryon, and part time residents are staying longer. Grocers now say they see no difference in winter and summer business. Anyone who wishes to do something for the community or pursue a hobby with friends, notify The Bulletin. One man advertised in The Bulletin for some one to study Spanish with him. An answer came in from Florida. . . Mrs. Grace Dawson reports that the Cancer Fund has gone over the $1,300 goal for the county . . .

Tryon Baptist Women's Circle met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Ned Swann with Mrs. Mack Averill in charge of the program.

LANIER CLUB MEETS IN TRYON TODAY

The annual business meeting of the Lanier Club will be held this afternoon at 3:30 at the Congregational Church House. A summary of this year's work and plans for the future will be discussed. Election of officers and committee reports will also be on the agenda.

MELLEN C. MARTIN

Mellen Chamberlain Martin, 65, passed away Tuesday afternoon about 5 o'clock in a Chicago hospital where he had been a patient following a heart attack. An attorney for the Chicago Tribune he had just returned from the Publishers meeting in New York City.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon. His sisters, Mrs. Karl G. Schairer, Mrs. A. R. Ford and Mr. Ford of Tryon are leaving by plane this afternoon to attend the services.

Mr. Martin had been a visitor to Tryon for more than 25 years and built a home here about 15 years ago in the Hunting Country known as El Cerrito.

Mr. Martin is survived by his wife, the former Miss Clara Trueblood, of Ann Arbor, Mich.; one son, Edward Trueblood Martin, and a daughter, Marilyn (Mrs. Phillip Mullen). He was born at Three Oaks, Mich., July 26, 1886, and was the son of the Rev. Moses Mellen and Mary (Pierce) Martin. He graduated from the University of Michigan in 1912. He was associated with the law firm of Kirkland, Fleming, Green, Martin & Ellis since 1912, and an active partner since 1918. He was a member of a number of civic clubs in Chicago, Winnetka, Ill., and Tryon, and active in various humanitarian causes. His office address was 33 N. LaSalle St., Chicago.

Baseball at Harmon Field today with Berkeley Mills at 4 p. m., and Thursday at 4 with Ecusta.

Joe Stockton is in Florida on a trip as the guest of Liberty Life Insurance Co., for increased production.