MOVIE SHOWN TO LIONS

The Lions Club met Tuesday night at Oak Hall hotel. Following dinner and the business meeting, a movie on "Safety" was shown by Harold Griffith. This movie was a follow-up of the talk on "Safety" given by Mr. Griffith at the club three weeks ago. The movie was self-explanatory with emphasis placed upon careful driving of an automobile.

B. Frank Rodgers, Henry E. Gilbert, and Melvin Hines were inducted as new members.

The guest for meeting was Byron Rector.

A nominating committee for new officers was elected with Frank Edwards, as chairman; Joe Stockton, J. W. Durham, Oliver Taylor, and Dick Taylor.
