TRYON, N. C.

TUESDAY, MAY 20th, 1952

Weather Monday: high 78, low 62, rain .06, Rel. Hum. 87. . . There is a lull in activities this week. Last week was so full with campaigns, annual meetings, politics, and other programs. Then, too, a lot of Tryon folk have gone to Europe, Mexico, California, New England, Florida and other points over the nation. Commencement at high schools, preparatory schools and colleges claiming our interest now. And it is really inspiring the way young folk in this area rank high in colleges. William B. Morrow Jr. of Landrum has been named valedictorian of the North Greenville Junior College this year. . . Ernst Mahler, John R. Kimberly, Mr. and Mrs. John Sensenbrenner, all of Neenah-Menasha, Wis. are arriving in Tryon for a few days stay and to attend the "open house" of Berkeley Mills at Balfour, a branch of the International Cellucotton Co. of which Mr. Mahler, Mr. Kimberly and Mr. Sensenbrenner are directors. "Open House" Friday at Balfour from 1 to 9 p. m. will include a 45-minute tour of the plant showing raw cotton from the gin through various stages to finished surgical gauze. The public is invited. Guides will be on hand to assist and to serve refreshments. . .
