TUESDAY, MAY 27TH, 1952

Weather Monday: High 81, low 57, Rel. Hum. 46 . . . Here it is nearly June and the thermometer goes down to 57 degrees, really nothing can be finer than to be in Carolina in the morning. Now Wednesday appears to be a full day for Tryonites. It's a half holiday with picnics and games and fun. The closing exercises at the school for various awards and certificates will be held at 9 a. m. The Masons are having an annual chicken supper and outing at Harmon Field at 7 o'clock. It's to be an occasion of fun and fellowship with members of their families. That night at 8 o'clock the commencement exercises will be held in the school auditorium with Dr. Paul A. Reid, an outstanding educator as the speaker. Dr. Reid has a charming personality and will delight his audience. . . . The Spartanburg Better Living Show which has been advertising in The Bulletin, will continue through Thursday from 2 to 10 p. m., and now Hendersonville is advertising its Dollar Days in The Bulletin. The Post Office and Tryon Bank will be closed all day FRIDAY for National Memorial Day, but Saturday is election day. In the meantime all the politicians are keeping alert to win foks over to their

Lion Election Is Scheduled for Tonight

Lion Joe Stockton, high salesman man of the year for the Liberty Life Insurance Co., will speak tonight at the regular meeting of the Lions Club at Oak Hall at 7:30. Mr. Stockton will speak on "A Belief" which he gave at Miami a few weeks ago.

A film "Credit Man's Confidence" will also be shown, according to Eugene Jones, chairman of the program committee.

In addition to hearing a speech and seeing a movie, the election of officers is scheduled; so all Lions are urged to be present.

Scout Meeting Wednesday

The Boy Scouts of Troop 1 of Tryon will meet Wednesday at 7 p. m. Scoutmaster Seth Vining Jr., requests that all boys who are planning on attending camp to bring their $1.50 registration fee.

School Closes Wednesday

The Tryon Schools will close Wednesday. The morning exercises will begin at 9 o'clock at which time various awards and certificates will be given.

Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, Dr. Paul A. Reid, president of Western Carolina State Teachers College, will deliver the commencement address. There are 32 graduates.

Per capita cash farm income in North Carolina hit a low of $61 in 1932. By 1950 it had risen to $584—but this figure was still far below the national average.
