Vol. 25—No. 86 TRYON, N. C.

THURSDAY, MAY 29TH, 1952

Weather Wednesday: High 86, low 49, Rel. Hum. 48 . . . Tonight is the night of the Duplicate Bridge Tournament at Oak Hall. Friday is National Memorial Day. The bank, post office and Federal Savings & Loan Assn., as well as other federal government offices will be closed . . . Saturday is the day of the big golf tournament for all the family at the Tryon Country Club to be closed with a picnic supper at the club house. Saturday is also primary day for Democrats and Republicans and promises to be one of the busiest days the county has seen in many years due to the intensity of the campaign and participation by Republicans in the primary . . . The Spartanburg Herald reports that Lois T. Searcy of Mill Spring is a patient in General Hospital. . . Mill Farm Inn is advertising an innovation in The Bulletin, offering holiday picnic meals at the Inn Memorial Day . . . CORRECTION: That was Mary Ann Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edwards who received the James R. Trowbridge Cup jointly with Meredith Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Wilson, Wednesday at Tryon school. Another note: Melvin Hipps, the singer, was the only student in the entire high school to be on the . . .
