THURSDAY, JUNE 5TH, 1952

Weather Wednesday: high 90, low 61, Rel. Hum. 60. . . General Eisenhower says the Democrats have ruled long enough. Time for a change. In Raleigh 150 convicts riot in State prison against conditions and hold 10 persons as hostages until relief was granted. . . The Tryon ABC Store sold over $50,000 worth of merchandise during May according to Chairman R. E. Brantley. Profit to the local and county taxpayers amounts to about $5,000. If the store is permitted to continue as is, the county and town will get about $50,000 the first year and the state and federal governments will get even more. It appears to be much more profitable than bootleg and moonshine which has been sold and manufactured all over the county even during prohibition days. Officers report less drunkenness since store has been established. . . The Duplicate Bridge Tournament tonight at Oak Hall hotel. . . Any former patient wishing to express appreciation of the work of the Nurses at St. Lukes Hospital have another opportunity by contributing to the fund for the purchase of a television set for the Nurses Home. The fund total to date is $55. Miss Faircloth is superintendent of nurses. . . About
