Weather Monday: High 94, low 68, rain .01, Rel. Hum. 54 . . . The first carload of Spartanburg County peaches left Monday for the market . . . Don L. West, managing editor of The Spartanburg Herald, missing since Friday, was found Monday walking in a daze on North Church Street. He was taken to the hospital. A 16-year-old ninth grade pupil in Binghamton, N. Y., was suspended Monday because he refused to shave off his mustache . . . The mercury climbed to 97 in Spartanburg Monday and 94 in Tryon, but cool rains last night brought the temperature down again. . . .

George Junius G. Adams of Asheville, brother of Mrs. W. F. Bryan of Tryon, was awarded an honorary degree from N. C. State College this week in recognition of his leadership in improving the agriculture of North Carolina. He was a pioneer in the development of cattle raising and the dairy industry, where the Asheville Citizen says, "He always put the emphasis on quality, North Carolina's new eminence in this field might not have been achieved without his example" . . . Miss Kathryn Kerhulas, bride-elect of June 14th has been honored with numerous parties and showers the past few days including those given by Mrs.

Columbus Baptists Praise Pastor Leppard And Wife

Through courtesy of a deacon this copy of a letter of appreciation to Rev. and Mrs. Leppard is made available to the public:

Columbus, N. C.

June 6, 1952

Rev. and Mrs. Leroy D. Leppard
Columbus, N. C.

It is with much joy and pride that the members of the Columbus Baptist Church take this opportunity to pay tribute to the great work you are doing in our little town and community.

The older parents as well as the younger mothers and fathers as Christians should be more than grateful to you who have endeared yourselves to the Christian work of this community as well as every other phase of good clean community interests.

To have your children brought up under such strong Christian influence and teaching is an asset to any community. It builds the citizens of tomorrow. It is only through such inspired Christian work and teaching that good and worthy citizen can be built.

So many accomplishments have been made. You are the peoples friends always ready to help no matter what time of day or night. You are the highest type of Christian workers, always understanding and sympathetic, always there to do more than your share.

You are indeed the leaders far out ahead beckoning the people to come down the straight and narrow path with you, to leave a Christian influence in the community that will stand as the years pass on.

This letter is a vote of confi-
