Weather Wednesday: High 90, low 66, Rel. Hum. 52 . . . House banking committee votes to end curb on credits. Sorry, wrong number. In that Blood Bank article call 53 (Mrs. Harwood) instead of 55 (that's Ballew's store). Korean Here! Miss Toni An (pronounced something like On) of Korea, a classmate of Miss Ann Harris at Montreat School, is a guest of the R. R. Harris home. Mrs. Harris has just returned from Raleigh where she represented the Presbyterian Church and was on the program of The Synodical Women's Conference at Peace College . . . Duplicate Bridge tournament tonight at Oak Hall . . . One of the delightful social occasions of the week was the rehearsal dinner at Mill Farm Inn Wednesday night for the Stone-Kerubulas wedding given by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stone of Greenville. Dinner was served on the terrace which had been illuminated with special lights for the occasion . . .

Columbia, S. C.—A Landrum company with $150,000 capital stock received a state incorporation charter today. It is the E. L. Lewis Co., which will do a retail variety and 5 and 10 cent store business. E. L. Lewis of Spartanburg is president.—Spartanburg Herald.

POLK COUNTY RUNOFF RACES ARE CALLED

A second Democratic primary will be held in Polk County in the races for House of Representatives, county commissioner and Tryon township constable.

G. Harrison Bridgeman Jr., the second high man in the race for House of Representatives, has called a runoff with R. E. Brantley, incumbent.

Bridgeman received 543 votes and Brantley 907 in a four candidate race for the House seat.

Brantley was the high man in the race, with Bridgeman second.

In the race for county commissioner, Troy Durham, incumbent, was high man in a field of five.

Demus Chapman was second and W. H. Barnette, third.

Barnette, who received 693 votes, has called for a second contest with Demus Chapman, who received 868 votes.

Tommy Thompson, candidate for Tryon constable, has called for a second race with W. H. (Lit) Durham, incumbent. Thompson received 311; Durham, 374; and W. B. Foster, 258.

In Green Creek School Board three-corner race B. F. Rodgers with 138 votes failed to get a majority over two candidates and Corrol Feagan next high with 122 votes will run it off.
