THURSDAY, JUNE 19TH, 1952

Weather Wednesday 95, low 64 (geel that's cold enough for a blanket). Rel Hum. 64 . . . Congratulations to Philip Gordon Wylie, 50 year old son of Dr. Edmund M. Wylie of Tryon, who was awarded an honorary doctor's degree at the University of Miami this past commencement. There are two doctors Wylie in the family now. Dr. Philip was educated at Princeton; served on the staffs of the New Yorker, Cosmopolitan Book, Paramount and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer; served as editor, columnist and author of numerous books and stories that appear regularly in Red Book, Saturday Evening Post and other magazines. Since moving to Florida he has become a leader in civic affairs as chairman of the Dade County Defense Council, president of the Conservation Council, vice president of International Game Fish Association, and member of the boards of various other organizations . . . Reports state that Mr. and Mrs. Richard Irwin, nee Margaret Sprague, are parents of a daughter, born a few days ago. Grandmother Sprague was not at home for confirmation. . . . Good to know that Polk County citizens are now beginning to be listed as donors of gallons of blood, representing eight trips to the blood bank. There are ap-

Koons Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. W. Earle Koon celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Sunday, June 15th, with a reception at their home on the Asheville Highway.

Mixed arrangements of summer flowers and white glads were used throughout the home.

Greeting the guests at the door were Miss Pamela Koon, only daughter of the Koons, and John G. Landrum Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Koon and Mr. Koon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Koon of Spartanburg. Miss Inez Koon, Mrs. Harold Kattmann of Spartanburg were in charge of the gift room. Serving and entertaining in the dining room were Mrs. Mike Revels, Mrs. George Mullis, Mrs. F. M. Littlefield, Mrs. Earl Shearer of Greenville and Miss Elizabeth Gregory of Spartanburg.

The table was overlaid with a hand embroidered lace cloth, gift of Mrs. Koon's mother, Mrs. Praytor, centered with an arrangement of white carnations and gysophyllia in a silver container, heirloom of the Koon family, flanked with silver candelabra embedded in English ivy. The anniversary cake was a five tier decorated one in silver and white, topped with
