WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25, 1952

Weather Tuesday: High 99, low 68, Rel. Hum. 46 . . . This hot weather won't last long. That 68 low shows a difference of 31 degrees . . . Secretary Dean Acheson is in London for talks with British and French on world problems . . . American planes bomb Korean power systems close to Manchurian border . . . Thanks to Donnie Farthing, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Farthing, for mowing the grass at the depot plot. It certainly looks better. When a community takes enough pride in its surroundings, things improve even thought you build a mudhole or mountainside. The plot of grass and shrubbery at the depot was out of the Town of Tryon's jurisdiction; the railroad didn't have enough money set aside for it (although in some communities an ordinance requires owners of vacant lots to keep their premises cleaned up); the Women's Garden Club talked about doing something about this unsightly spot for over a year, but no results. The Men's Garden Club at the last meeting in May appointed a committee to see about it. A problem for a big corporation, and civic leaders, to consider many months. Along comes an 11-year-old boy who mows the grass with his power mower for

Civil Defense At Kiwanis

Rev. LeRoy Leppard was in charge of the Kiwanis program Tuesday at Oak Hall and showed a movie sponsored by the Civil Defense. The movie showed the dangers of the atom bomb and gave precautions to take in order to survive an atomic attack.

Guests of the club were Sam Goodman, Spartanburg; Sig Westmoreland, Marion; Bill Wyatt, Marion and Rupert Koch, Hendersonville, all visiting Kiwanians and Joe K. Davis, Columbus.

HOSPITAL NEWS

New patients at St. Luke's Hospital include Joan Henson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Henson, Tryon; patients discharged include Robert L. Shuford and Luther Watson, Columbus.

SWIMMING INSTRUCTOR

The First Aid Committee of the Polk County Chapter of the American Red Cross announces that Vance McCown who is a qualified instructor, will have a class in water safety (swimming instruction) at the Tryon Country Club on Saturday mornings from 8:30 to 10 o'clock, starting July 5th. The class will be open to children from 8 to 12 years of age. In order to give the proper individual instruction the class will be limited to eight children, including both boys and girls, and the first eight to apply will be accepted. Those interested to complete the full course, which will run through July and August and consist of eight lessons, may phone Mrs. E. G. Ince, Tryon 198-R. The first eight applicants will be accepted in the order of their phoning.
