GARRETT-GILLESPIE

Miss Gloria Myrtle Gillespie became the bride of William Russell Garrett in a double ring ceremony on Sunday, the 29th, at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon in the First Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Lessie M. Gillespie of Tryon, and Mr. Garrett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Garrett of Columbus.

The Rev. H. O. Hearn, pastor, performed the ceremony, and a program of wedding music was presented by Fred Powell, vocalist, and Melvin Hipps, organist. The church was decorated with white gladioli, white carnations, Esther Reed Daises and ferns, with white tapers in branched candelabra and white cathedral arrangement.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Keith R. Gillespie, wore a wedding gown of bridal satin designed with a fitted bodice appliqued with imported Chantilly lace, and a yoke of silk illusion. The dress was fastened at the back with tiny covered buttons and long sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The full satin skirt with lace applique flowered into an aisle wide train. Her full-length veil was of imported silk illusion attached to a cap of satin trimmed with scattered seed pearls and edged with illusion, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses.

Miss Mary Louise Gillespie, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a Ballerina length dress of pink Chantilly lace and nylon net. The strapless bodice of lace was finished with a cape extending to a point in the back and Peterpan Collar. The very full net skirt had a deep peplum
