This section enjoyed a delightful July 4th weekend. No serious accidents were reported. The police say everything was quiet except everyone seemed to be going or coming from the mountains in streams of cars. . . Tryon Country club had a full day. In the women's division Mrs. Libby Mahler won low gross; Miss Jane Brown won longest drive and best drive to special hole; low went to Mrs. J. G. Newhall; shortest drive to Miss Elena Garcia. For the men Jack Craig won longest drive; Fred Edwards low gross and closest to hole; low net went to George Newhall. . . The picnic supper was enjoyed by a large crowd. . . Monte Dedman has moved his office to quarters formerly occupied by R. H. Brady where he will be after 4 p. m. Monday through Friday and all day Saturdays. He is resuming his regular work at the Bulletin office and all friends are requested not to interrupt him except for urgent matters that can't wait.

DAILY BULLETINS—5c each.

JOHN DARNALL

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hart received word Sunday of the sudden death of their neighbor, John Darnall, in Bergen, Norway, where he and Mrs. Darnall were on a tour.

Mr. Darnall was formerly an executive of Proctor & Gamble Co. of Cincinnati and he and Mrs. Darnall moved to Tryon about three years ago when they completed their new home on Piney Ridge.

LANDRUM MASONS MEET

The Landrum Masonic Lodge will meet Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.
