Vol. 25—No. 117 TRYON, N. C.

FRIDAY, JULY 11TH, 1952

Weather Thursday: High 84, low 60. Rel. Hum. 48 . . . The work of the Tryon Street Department in trying to keep the streets clean is very commendable. Early risers who see the street before thoughtless people mess it up with empty cartons and wrappers can appreciate it . . . Two little boys this morning opened their pop-sicles in front of The Bulletin office, but gathered the wrappers in their hands and put them in the trash container in front of Ballenger's. If all parents would teach their children to do that it would help immensely. . . . Some alert observers predict Eisenhower to be nominated this morning . . . Ralph Fisher of Brevard, a Republican, has been named by Governor Scott to be president of the North Carolina State railroad.
