

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 25—No. 125) TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, JULY 23, 1952

CURB REPORTER

Weather Tuesday: High 99, low 74, Rel. Hum. 52 . . . It was hot everywhere yesterday according to reports. Chief interest is in the Democratic convention in Chicago where speeches were made Tuesday by ministers Anderson to Denmark, Mesta to Luxembourg, Mrs. India Edwards, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt. Vice President Barkley, who withdrew from the race, and Senator Russell of Georgia and Governor Stevenson of Illinois are cousins, says Eugene Turner. No wonder there's a big "family fight" in the convention. If Stevenson and Russell become the candidates it will probably be the first time two cousins were on the ticket at the same time . . . Duplicate Bridge tournament on Thursday at Oak Hall. Indian pageant Thursday 8 p. m. at Scout camp. Fellowship group of the Congregational Church meets Friday at Lake Lanier Tea House. All invited to go out early for a swim before supper . . . Spartanburg Herald report marriage of William Kenneth Wall of Campobello R-1 and Mary Marjorie Owens of Tryon R-1; also patients in General Hospital: Mrs. W. H. McDonald of Tryon, James Forrester and Lucy Forrester of Landrum.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsey leave Friday for Fairmont, N. J., where they will visit their son, Elmer Ramsey, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lawrence are attending the Craftsman Show in Asheville where they have a weaving exhibit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barnard of Winston-Salem are guests of Mrs. D. C. Brundage.

DOG NEWS

"The Complete Pekingese" by Milo G. Denlinger is an interesting book on the history and development of the Pekingese dog, its training and general care, etc., and news about various dogs, owners, judges and trainers.

One paragraph comments about Mrs. Herbert Mapes of Tryon, (formerly of New Jersey) "whose husband is one of our noted judges, has been breeding Pekingese for about 25 years. Her kennel called Whitworth, has produced American bred champions over a long period of time. Few imported dogs have been needed to keep up quality, although many of their home bred bitches were mated to imported studs, and the Whitworth line now combines Pagan Chieftain blood. Arellian Choo Leen and their last Champion, Peer of Whitworth, goes back on the dam's side to Orchard Hill. Mrs. Mapes is one of our few good dog artists, and has painted many famous Pekingese. She has been able to capture in color, true likenesses of these great champions, showing correct modern type, thereby perpetuating them in lasting portraits for all posterity to see."

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gardner of Tryon are among the latest owners to acquire a Pekingese. Tryon has many dog lovers and The Bulletin hopes to conduct a column from time to time on the activities of local dogs. Anyone desiring to contribute short news items about their dogs or their friends' dogs, may write "Dog Editor" of The Bulletin. Or telephone the Curb Reporter if you don't have time to write.

Walter C. Hill was admitted to St. Luke's Hospital. There were no discharges.