

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 25—No. 126) TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, JULY 24TH, 1952

Weather Wednesday: High 99, low 74, Rel. Hum. 38 . . . Rev. and Mrs. Orville H. White will return to Tryon the 29th. They say it has been hot in New England . . . Big forest fire now raging on Rocky Spur in Greenville County near Hogback Mountain. Flames are seen at night and the air is filled with the smell of a campfire. This section needs lots of rain. Crops are suffering . . . Tryon Methodists will have an old fashion ice cream party Wednesday, July 30, at 6:30 at Harmon Field. A small charge will be made and the public is invited. . . Nominations for President of the United States will begin today at the National Democratic Convention in Chicago. Wednesday's Asheville Citizen had a picture of Polk's delegate, R. E. Brantley, just enough to show his cigar, mouth, chin and eyebrows as he stood between delegates Taylor and L. B. Prince . . . Indian pageant tonight at 8 at the Scout camp, and duplicate bridge at 7:45. . . Revival services are now underway at Mill Spring Baptist Church with the Rev. Glenn Felmet, pastor of Hayne Baptist Church of Spartanburg, preaching.

DAILY BULLETINS—5c each.

MRS. GEORGE MARTING

Mrs. Caroline Danis Marting, 50, wife of George Marting of Columbus, died about 3 p. m., Wednesday while swimming in Bradley's pool in Green River, near Holbert's Cove.

State Highway Patrolman W. R. Boyles, Coroner Otis Dalton and Deputy Sheriff H. G. Laughter said an attending physician believed she died of a heart attack, though he did not completely rule out the possibility of drowning. No autopsy was scheduled, however.

The officers said Mrs. Martin rolled face-down in the water while swimming in a deep section of a bend in the river. A nearby swimmer grabbed her almost immediately, but lost his grip as he carried her out and had to swim back for her at once. He said it took about two minutes to get her out and then artificial respiration was applied for about an hour to no avail.

Investigating officers included Laughter, Boyles and Dalton.

Mrs. Marting was a native of Maryland, the daughter of Michael and Marion Kraus Danis of Czechoslovakia.

Surviving, besides her husband and parents are: two sisters, Misses Mary and Mildred Danis, and one brother, Michael Danis all of Cleveland, O.; and a daughter, Mrs. Tom Regal of Cleveland.

Mrs. Marting with her sister, Miss Mary Danis, operated Hotel Tryon for a number of years, before her marriage to Mr. Marting. Since moving to Columbus she had taken an active part in various community affairs in Columbus and Tryon.

The body will be sent by Mc—
Continued on Back Page