

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

(Vol. 25—No. 127) TRYON, N. C. FRIDAY, JULY 25TH, 1952

Weather Thursday: High 99, low 73, Rel. Hum. 61 . . . The steel strike is settled . . . South Carolina officials report that about 1,000 acres of mountain land near Hogback has been burned in the past three days. Volunteer firemen are helping the wardens . . . The National Democratic convention seated the Virginia, Louisiana and South Carolina delegations about 2 o'clock this morning. All nominations have been made including Russell, Kefauver, Kerr, Stevenson, Harriman, Williams, Humphrey, Fulbright, Dever, Barkley, McMahon. Ballotting will begin today after the convention adjourns at 11 o'clock . . . Dr. Kerri-

Juniper, who preaches his last sermon Sunday here at the Congregational Church Sunday morning says he has enjoyed his stay here during the vacation of the pastor, Rev. Orville White. His sermon subject Sunday will be "The Temptation of the Short Cut" . . . About 100 cars were out on the Skyuka Road Sunday to see the new development on Tryon Mountain where the Tryon Real Estate invites the public to view the scenery and offer suggestions for a name for the development. A total of $50 will be given to the winner or winners of the name chosen by the judges. Tom Costa

Continued on Back Page

Polk County Girl Wins State Speaking Championship

Miss Patricia Arledge of the Polk County 4-H Club, won first place in the state speaking contest Thursday afternoon at Raleigh, according to information received by County Agent Paul Culberson. Miss Arledge has addressed a number of civic clubs and political groups in the county and was selected as Miss Polk County in the Winthrop College newspaper high school edition this year. She was selected from the Green Creek school on the basis of personality, scholarship, leadership, et cetera.

Other members of the Polk County 4-H Club attending the meeting in Raleigh with Assistant Home Agt. Miss Elizabeth Wright, were Alfred Stott, Lawrence Rollins, Russell Pack, Rachel Horne, Libby Jack, Mary Jo Richey, Carol Foster.

Miss Arledge will receive a set of silver and a free trip to Chicago.

DISTRICT MASONS TO MEET MONDAY

Brevard, July 22.—The annual district meeting of the Masons in the 38th district will be held here in Brevard at the new Masonic temple on East Main Street on Monday, July 28th.

The local Dunn's Rock lodge will be host to representatives from the Saluda lodge at Saluda, the Kedronn lodge, Hendersonville, and the Jeff L. Nelson lodge at Tryon.

According to Ernest H. Gibbs of Columbus, district deputy grand master of the 38th Masonic district, the lodges voted to return to

Continued on Page Two