Vol. 25—No. 131 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, JULY 31ST, 1952

Wether Wednesday: High 99, low 66, rain .13, Rel. Hum. 66. There's some improvement, and the two showers were delightful. Need more. The town officials are making an effort to borrow or rent a pump to bring water from a nearby stream into the town water works. The shortage of water is desperate and town officials are requesting all consumers not to water their lawn, flower gardens, irrigate, wash cars, or use water in any way not absolutely necessary until relief by big rains has been given. The town hopes to see its new water system facilities increased as soon as technical and engineering plans have been complete! . . . Toight at 7:45 is Duplicate Bridge night, open to everyone at Oak Hall. The Indian Pageant at Lake Lanier at 8 p. m., open to the public . . . Mrs. Florence Martin, wife of Rev. A. C. Martin of Mill Spring, is in Spartanburg Hospital suffering serious injuries as the result of her automobile skidding on wet pavement near Chesnee Wednesday . . . Dr. W. L. Norville of the Rutherford-Polk Health Department, has resigned to accept a similar position with Alamance County. Dr. G. O. Moss has been elected to succeed him temporarily.
