

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 135 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 6 1952

Weather: Albert Simpson and Major Sharp report less than a 10th of an inch of rain on Wilderness Road. Other sections seem to have received more rain but no figures available. Spartanburg had no rain. Tom Hair reports a high temperature of 87 and a low of 69. The water supply here is still critical. Mayor C. D. Stevens will announce when we can go back to using water freely . . . Miss Jeannette MacGregor, superintendent of public welfare, needs two beds for a family in the county. Anyone with an extra bed to donate may telephone the Welfare Department, 401 Columbus. Thursday night bridge night at Oak Hall hotel at 7:45, and Indian Pageant night at 8 o'clock at the Boy Scout Camp . . . Lanier Library is receiving contributions to its Memorial Fund in memory of Miss Mary F. Carpenter, former librarian.

Democrats are meeting in Columbia, S. C., to decide what course to take in Presidential election in November. Mississippi Democratic rebels to support General Eisenhower. The governor of Mississippi will support Stevenson . . . Lightning hit a Rural Electrification plant near Morganton Tuesday and put 2,500 people in the dark.

Brantley Speaks On Democratic Convention

Delegate R. E. Brantley spoke to the Kiwanis Club Tuesday at Oak Hall on the highlights of the Democratic Convention held recently in Chicago. Mr. Brantley said that while attending the convention he didn't miss a meeting, but due to the noise and confusion he was able to hear only about 4 speeches. He stated that the delegates got very little sleep and were glad to see adjournment roll around.

The speaker felt that those who watched the convention on television probably knew more about what was going on than most of the delegates. Although there were many eating places near the convention hall, Mr. Brantley said that it was almost impossible to get served regardless of the time of day.

Mr. Brantley passed around pictures of the Conrad Hilton Hotel, where the North Carolina delegates stayed and of the convention hall; and a program of the convention.

Guests of the club were Rupert Koch, Hendersonville; Deck Hull, Spartanburg; and Jim Jackson, Tryon. R. L. Dick was in charge of the program.

Mrs. Kuhn's Father

News has been received in Tryon of the death of D. W. Montague of Charleston, West Virginia, father of Mrs. Willis E. Kuhn of Tryon and Carmel, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McSwain of Landrum are the parents of a son born at St. Luke's Hospital on Aug. 6, at 2:30 a. m.