

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 126 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, SEPT. 4TH, 1952

Weather Wednesday: High 80, low 60, Rel. Hum. 45. . . The Tryon Rotary Club is celebrating its 25th anniversary this week and former President Isham Henderson, has charge of the program. It will be a program of reminiscences. Not many charter members remain on the rolls as a lot of things happen in 25 years. Dr. A. J. Jervey, the first president, has passed on, but Ryan McCown, one of the founders, who succeeded him as president, will be one of the speakers Friday. The Polk County News of September 22, 1927, welcomed the new club which was organized the week before as needed in the community. Therefore it has mostly been the women who have initiated matters of community betterment," wrote R. D. Lyons, editor of The News and a charter member. The September 15th issue of The News had a list of the charter members, but that list had been cut from the files of The Polk County News prior to the present ownership and is not available. The second meeting of Rotary was held Tuesday, Sept. 20th, at Lake Lanier Tea House when three members from Spartsburg club came up to help start the new club off. The third meeting was held Friday, Sept. 30th, when some Asheville mem-

Continued on Back Page

HOUNDS IN TRAINING

The hounds for the Tryon Hounds have roamed extensively the past few weeks by Huntsman George Webster and Whipper-in Ray Cochran, getting ready for the fall hunts. Mr. Webster stated Wednesday that there are 13 couples (26 hounds) ready for the first hunt; and six more puppies are being raised for replacement next year.

Ernst Mahler and Carter P. Brown are joint master of hounds. Cary L. Page is secretary-treasurer.

BUSINESS PADLOCKED

Sheriff Loyd B. Panther by court order has padlocked a county-line filling station and cabins between Mill Spring and Rutherfordton.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients admitted to St. Luke's Hospital include Mrs. William A. McFarland, Columbus; Kenneth Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wagner, R-1, Tryon. There were no patients discharged.

Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Jones of Tryon are the parents of a girl born Sept. 3rd at 10:55 a. m. Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Landrum are the parents of a boy born Sept. 3rd, at 9:10 p. m.

The State Board of Elections will investigate the theft of stolen ballots in the second primary held here this spring, according to reports from Raleigh.

Petitions containing the signatures of 53,000 persons have been filed in South Carolina to permit the people of the state to vote for General Eisenhower for President.