

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 128 TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, SEPT. 8TH, 1952

Weather Friday: high 73, low 49, Rel. Hum. 64; Saturday high 85, low 50, Rel. Hum. 48; Sunday high 89, low 51, Rel. Hum. 50. . . Mrs. Caroline Hale has received news of the death of Edward Kinsey on Friday at the Orange Memorial Hospital, Orlando, Fla. following a long illness. Mrs. Kinsey who is ill is now in the same hospital, Room 509, Orlando. Mr. and Mrs. Kinsey lived in Tryon approximately 15 years in the house they built at the foot of Piney Mt. Mr. Kinsey was a former teacher of voice in New York and continued teaching after he moved to Tryon. Masonic funeral services being held today (Monday) in Orlando. The Kinseys moved to Florida last year. . . L. J. Fleenor, 56, father of Mrs. William D. Prather of Tryon, died this morning in Charlotte following a heart attack on Thursday. Mr. and Fleenor spent part of their vacation here two weeks ago. . . Keen interest and close competition is being manifested in the battle for the men's championship at the Tryon Country Club. . . Mrs. Ted Fox is a patient in a Roanoke, Va. hospital. . . Today's headline features another government for Egypt as the Army throws out Premier Maher and installs Naguib in his place in order to clean out corruption. Hard fighting continues in Korea.

TRYON 12 COWPENS 0

The Tryon Tigers took advantage of the breaks on Friday afternoon and rolled to a 12-0 win over Cowpens in the opening game of the season. After Jim Cowan recovered a Cowpen's fumble in the first quarter, the Tryonites moved downfield to score with Ronnie Ross going over from the three yard line. Jim Ballew's attempt for the extra point fell short. After holding the Raiders in check for two more quarters, the Tigers began to roll in the final period as their passing attack began to click. Raleigh Parker tossed to Lyle Dorow who galloped the remaining 20 yards to score. Ballew's kick for the extra point was short.

Phillips and Dupre were outstanding defensively for Cowpens, while James was the offensive star. For Tryon, Hugh Hines, Jim Cowan, and Wallace Lankford were excellent on defense, while Dorow, Ross, and Parker took offensive honors.

The Tryon line-up. Ends, Dorow, Hines; tackles, Bob Turner, Preston Foster, Cowan; guards, Dan Edwards, Allan Pruette, Fred Ashley; center, Gay Corpening; backs, Kite Biedler, Ross, Parker, Larkford, Lynwood Thompson, Dan Williams.—School Reporter.

Dr. and Mrs. Austin Woody and sons John and William have returned to Tryon after a vacation in New Jersey and Philadelphia.

Miss Jane Puckett who was graduated from Agnes Scott College in June and is now teaching the 7th grade in Asheville, spent the weekend in Tryon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Puckett.