

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 133 TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, SEPT. 15TH, 1952

CURB REPORTER

Weather Friday: high 82, low 68, rain .29, Rel. Hum. 82; Saturday high 85, low 69, rain .15, Rel. Hum. 76, Sunday high 86, low 63, Rel. Hum. 70 . . . Politics about the same. South Carolinians looking forward to the visit of General Eisenhower at Columbia on Sept. 30. He will be introduced by Governor Byrnes. U. N. indicates depression ahead. . . Congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. George Farrand Taylor on their 40th wedding anniversary, Friday, Sept. 12th. They spent their honeymoon in the mountains of North Carolina 40 years ago and came to Tryon 20 years ago from New York to make their permanent home. They entered into the spirit of the community. Their enthusiasm, leadership and personal labor to the point of self sacrifice put new life into the town. As a team and as individuals they have promoted many worthwhile things here. The Boys Club Dr. Taylor organized inspired many young boys to greater achievements; his work with the Scouts; his many addresses to all kinds of public gatherings; his schools of religion at local churches and his years as a professor at Converse College have left their impress for good on thousands. Both worked for the P. T. A.; Mrs. Taylor was a boast to the Auxiliary, and her garden projects and community beautification programs have set examples for others to follow. She is the founder of the famous Home Friendly Club designed to give good cheer, hope and personal friendship to our men and women in the armed services. Both have

--- Continued on Back Page ---

POLK MAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT TODAY

Anthony Isaiah Painter, 64, Polk County farmer, was instantly killed Monday morning about 1 o'clock and his wife seriously injured in an automobile accident on the Big Level road near Wilson's ridge over Green River.

Investigating officer W. R. Boyles stated that William Martin Bolt was reported to be the driver of the car which was traveling up hill when it went to the left of the road and then the right side for some feet before going off a 15 foot embankment. Other members of the family including Mrs. Martin Bolt and children Myrtle and Johnny Bolt were not injured. Mrs. Painter is in St. Lukes Hospital suffering a broken shoulder and head injuries.

Deputies Gurley Laughter and Sellers Edwards assisted in the investigation.

Funeral services for Mr. Painter will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Beulah Church with Rev. B. W. Reid officiating.

Besides his wife Mrs. Bonnie Brown Painter, the deceased is survived by the six children by a former marriage: Mrs. Lilian Watson of Tryon; Mrs. Pearl Brown, Mill Spring Route 2; Mrs. Addie Thompson, Tryon Route 1; Richard and Edgar of Landrum Route 1 and Earl Painter of Tryon Route One.; One sister, Mrs. Eliza Laughter of Landrum Route 1; 24 grand children and 5 great grand children.

McFarland Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements and the body will be at the home of Richard Painter on Landrum Route 1 until hour of service.