

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 136 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, SEPT. 18TH, 1952

Weather Wednesday: high 85, low 61, Rel. Hum. 45. We join other progressive citizens in congratulating the Community Cash Super Market on their new building in Landrum. The Landrum store has proved popular since it opened six years ago under the management of Judson Woodruff. The new store has a 62 feet front and is modern in every way. It is the 25th store in a chain founded by B. R. Littlejohn Sr. Joe Arthur is manager of the meat department. D. R. Cheney is supervisor of the stores in the Landrum district. . . Polk County Democratic Rally dinner Monday, Sept. 22, 7 p. m. Sunnydale at $5 plate to raise money for the campaign. Congressman Woodrow Jones, speaker. . . Tom Hair will be in charge of Rotary Friday at 1 p. m., Oak Hall. . . Married in Spartanburg: Grady Lee Plumley and Lillie Elizabeth Lindsey of Tryon. . . Harry Bridgeman says dove season opens Oct. 1 to 15th, and again Dec. 27 to Jan. 10. Bag limit 8 per day. No shooting over baited field. Duplicate bridge tonight at 7:45, Oak Hall. . . Will Pless III, 29, son of Judge Pless, found dead in his Jacksonville, Fla. room, with bullet wound in right temple. . .

----- Continued on Back Page -----

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients admitted to St. Luke's Hospital are as follows: Miss Octavia Pace, Mrs. Harold Hannon and son, Michael; Mrs. Clay Barton, Landrum; Mrs. Henry Huxley, Tryon.

Patients discharged include Miss Lucy Culbreth, Landrum; Mrs. Lee Underwood, Tryon; Donald E. Stamey, Tryon.

FOR YOUR READING AT LANIER LIBRARY

"Man From Abilene." by Kevin McCann. Here is one of the first appraisals of General Dwight Eisenhower, written by one of his closest personal and professional associates. "My Three Years With Eisenhower," by Captain Harry C. Butcher, USNR, (1942-1945). "In One Ear," by Eric Sevareid, Chief Washington Correspondent for CBS. An illuminating panorama of our times—Contributed.

TRYON SCHOOL NEWS

Tryon Senior Class officers have been elected as follows: President, Wallace Lankford; Vice-Pres., Fred Bridgeman; Secretary, Lyle Dorow; Treasurer, Glenn Head; Reporter Glenna Hamrick.

At the time of the election the class was composed of nine boys and seven girls. Since that time Glenna Hamrick has returned which adds to the girl's strength. —School Reporter.

Delmar's photographers spent the day at Tryon School taking individual pictures Tuesday, the 16.

Have you noticed how left-handed the Seniors have recently become? That's because their new class rings came last week.