

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest Daily Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 140 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 24, 1952

Weather Tuesday: High 77, low 54, Rel. Hum. 56 . . . The highlight of Tuesday night was Senator Nixon's speech over nationwide radio and television hookup explaining the $18,000 fund donated by friends for his expenses. He said none of it had been spent for personal gain, and that everything was open and above board. The neutral observers say it was a great speech, and Governor Stevenson, the Democratic candidate, had no comment. Eisenhower said Nixon is a brave man . . . Pocky Marciano won the world's boxing championship Tuesday night defeating Jersey Joe Walcott . . . American Federation of Labor endorses Stevenson for president. . . Chesnee, S. C., lost its school building by fire around 2 o'clock Wednesday morning . . . The raising of the poles to light Harmon Field has been delayed until late this afternoon or early Thursday morning on account of a delay in arrival of materials. Donations to help pay for the lighting equipment may be given to any of the following committee members: Russell Walcott, John W. Cowan, Nelson Jackson, W. L. Hague, Seth M. Vining Jr., C. M. Eargle, G. D. Cooksey, Eugene Jones, Nelson Jackson II, Peter Mahler, Frank Proffitt, C. E. Willard, Her-

Continued on Back Page

PAINTER INQUEST HELD TUESDAY NIGHT AT 7:30

Coroner Otis Dalton held an inquest into the death of Anthony Isaiah Painter, Polk County farmer, who was instantly killed on Monday, Sept. 15th about 1 a. m. The inquest was held at city hall in Tryon on Tuesday night.

The coroner's jury rendered a verdict that Mr. Painter "came to his death as the result of injuries received from an automobile wreck at the hands of William Martin Bolt," and that he be held for action of the Polk County Grand Jury.

Polk County Coroner Otis Dalton swore out a warrant before Justice Monte Dedman for Bolt charging him with "manslaughter" and bond was set at $1,500 for his appearance at the January, 1953 term of Superior Court.

Prior to the warrant for manslaughter, W. R. Boyles, of the State Highway Patrol, who investigated the wreck, swore out two warrants before Justice Dedman for Bolt for "driving while drunk" and "driving without an operator's license. Bonds in these two cases was set at $200 each.

Bolt was released on bond Sunday afternoon.

Coroner Dalton announced that an inquest into the death of Horace "Nub" Carry, who was found drowned Sunday morning in South Howard Street creek, would be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the city hall in Tryon.

AMVETS MEET THURSDAY

A regular meeting of AMVETS will be held Thursday, Sept. 25th, at 7:30 p. m., in the Court House at Columbus.