

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 249 TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1952

Weather Friday: high 72, low 48, Rel. Hum. 41; Saturday high 75, low 36, Rel. Hum. 42; Sunday high 81, low 42, Rel. Hum. 40. . . The Dogers won one of the most exciting world series games Sunday and now lead the Yankees 3 to 2. If the Dogers win today they'll be champions. If not it will be tied up again with the final game Tuesday. . . CHANGE: The WSCS of the Methodist Church will meet Tuesday night with Mrs. J. S. Craig in Columbus. Alcoholics Anonymous meet Tuesday night in Tryon with Dr. Taylor speaking.

. . . Hester-Wilkins Circle will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. Mrs. G. Harrison Bridgeman. Tryon Kiwanis Club meets Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall. Program will be in charge of Roy France. . . Vance McCown, student at University of South Carolina, Columbia, was home for the weekend and had as guests fellow students, Woody Lovelace of Anderson and Zack McColl of Marion.

Mrs. Lucius O. Lee of Auburn-dale, Mass., is visiting in Tryon as a guest of Miss Harriet A. Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Turner. For many years Mrs. Lee served as a missionary of the Congregational Church in Turkey. After her return home she served as secretary with special responsibility for Women's Work in the

Continued on Back Page

MR. ANDREW M. LAW

An announcement appears in The Herald-Journal this morning of the withdrawal of Mr. Andrew M. Law from A. M. Law & Co., one of the long established institutions of Spartanburg, with a constructive and successful career of more than 50 years. It is pleasing that his withdrawal from the partnership does not mean his retirement, or his inactivity in the affairs of this city and region or in any changes in the services. A. M. Law & Co., as it continues under the direction of his associates.

Mr. Law, a native of Spartanburg, a son of the late Dr. Thomas H. Law, for years pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and therefore a member of the family identified with Spartanburg through so many years, and in such places of influence and leadership. In more recent years Mr. Law has made his home in Tryon and been less identified with civic affairs. Probably his most satisfying experience, comes not from his commercial activities, his early municipal responsibilities and his identification with important industrial development, but from the fact he was chairman of the Building Committee of the First Presbyterian Church—the church of his father—in which that congregation now worships. So he can with justified satisfaction look upon that splendid structure.

He has believed in and contributed throughout the years to the development of the city and this region and his withdrawal from the firm he established will not lessen his activities.—The Spartanburg Herald-Journal.

Eastern Star meets tonight at 8 p. m., at the Masonic Hall.