

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 250 TRYON, N. C.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1952

Weather Monday: High 81, low 41, Rel. Hum. 55 . . . Frost is predicted for the mountain area tonight when the thermometer goes down to 34 . . . Final game of World Series will be played today beginning at 1 o'clock. Yankees won yesterday to tie the series 3-3. The first team to win four out of seven becomes the champion. . . . Carolinas District Kiwanis convention is meeting in Charlotte Sunday, Monday, Tuesday. K. A. Bowen and P. L. Barnette represented the Tryon club as delegates. . . . Chairman R. E. Brantley of the ABC Board stated the other day that $10,000 of the profits from the ABC store has been divided as follows: to Town of Tryon, $1,000; to Polk County, $2,500; to Harmon Field, $500. After paying out this $10,000 there still remains $38,020.21 which is being reserved for operating capital . . . Congressman Monroe Redden addressed the Polk County Young Democrats at their Rally at Harmon Field Saturday and the Republicans are getting ready for their big meeting at Mill Spring this coming Saturday when General Eichelberger will speak for his friend, General Eisenhower. Public invited to hear him . . . This is Fire Prevention Week. Some little children playing with matches the other day in Spartanburg

-----Continued on Back Page-----

CAMPAIGN CONTINUES

Membership Chairman Jim Gibson of the Tryon Little Theatre reports that membership applications are coming in.

Tryouts for "The Curious Mrs. Savage," the first Little Theatre Production of the season, will be held at Oak Hall, Tuesday evening, October 7th, at 8, and everyone is invited to attend.

MASONS MEET THURSDAY

Jeff L. Nelson Masonic Lodge, will hold an emergent meeting on Thursday night at 7:30 at the hall for work in the Master's Degree, according to Worshipful Master Demus Chapman.

HOSPITAL NEWS

New patients at St. Luke's Hospital include George Littlejohn of Tryon and Mrs. Lois Turner of Landrum. Patients discharged include Miss Vinnie Foster of Columbus and Orval Corn of Tryon.

PIG SHOW THURSDAY

A Hampshire Pig Show will be held at Harmon Field Thursday, October 9th, at 2:30 prior to the 4-H Poultry Auction Sale. Poultry Specialist W. G. Andrews of Raleigh will be present. Public invited.

Rummage Sale at Parish House NEXT WEEK, October 18th, and not this week.

EPH GOODLOE: "All my folks here at home have new winter clothes. For which I'm mighty thankful. But if we have more than a mild-frost, I will be confined to my teepee!"—W. M. Bissell.