Kiwanis 25th Anniversary Program Here Tuesday

The Tryon Kiwanis Club will celebrate its 25th anniversary Tuesday night, October 21, at 7:30, with a ladies night program at Oak Hall hotel.

Chairman J. Albert Simpson of the program committee has announced that District Governor Joe O. Tally Jr., mayor of Fayetteville, will be the chief speaker. Lieut. Governor M. E. Gambrell of Hendersonville will present 25 year membership pins to Chas. J. Lynch and Seth M. Vining. Carroll P. Rogers, the first president of the club was originally a member of the Hendersonville club and received his 25 year pin several years ago. He transferred his membership to Tryon and became also a charter member of the local club and later lieutenant governor of Division One. He will be toastmaster Tuesday night.

Craig B. Thomas has arranged a program of music featuring John Eversman, violinist, and group singing by the assembly. The invocation will be by Rev. LeRoy D. Leppard. Seth M. Vining, president of the club will welcome the guests and introduce visiting Kiwanians representing clubs which took part in the charter meeting program 25 years ago. The clubs to be represented are Hendersonville, Asheville, Brevard, Rutherfordton, Shelby and Spartanburg. In addition to those clubs other guests will include the Immediate Past District Governor Joe T. Chiott and Mrs. Chiott of Asheville; former Lieutenant Governor R. E. Price and Mrs. Price of Rutherfordton; Mrs. Joe Tally, wife of the governor; Mrs. Gambrell, wife of the lieutenant-gov-
