

ENTLED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 260 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1952

Weather Monday: High 71, low 45, Rel. Hum. 36 . . . Tonight at 7:30 is the time for the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Tryon Kiwanis Club at Oak Hall hotel. Carroll P. Rogers, the first president, will be the toastmaster. The chief speaker will be the District Governor J. O. Tally Jr., of Fayetteville . . . The next big meeting at Oak Hall will be the annual dinner meeting Monday night of the Tryon Chamber of Commerce with Dr. Francis Pendleton Gaines Jr., president of Wofford College, as chief speaker. Jerry Ball of Charlotte will entertain with piano music, songs, monologues and stunts. A turkey dinner will be served and tickets may be obtained from the Chamber of Commerce office or any member of the committee which consists of President George D. Cooksey, John G. Landrum Jr., Nelson Jackson 2nd, Mrs. Fred Owen, Mrs. M. C. Brendall. Rev. Henry O. Hearn will give the invocation and Past President Howard Frankenfield will give a summary of the year's activities. . . . The Women Golfers and Bridge Players of the Tryon Country Club are sponsoring a luncheon Tuesday, October 28th at 1 p. m., at the Country Club. It is the closing program of the season and prizes will be awarded for golf and

Continued On Back Page

FOOTBALL NEWS

The Tryon Tigers, licking their wounds from a 33-0 setback at the hands of Hendersonville, began preparation yesterday for their game at Christ School on Friday afternoon.

The Tigers are in good shape except for Fred Ashley, who has a pulled shoulder muscle. He is expected to be ready by Friday, however, Ronnie Ross has been ruled out for the remainder of the season because of a leg injury and his loss will hurt the Tigers' chances from here on out.

The next home game for the Tigers will be on November 1st, against Asheville School.

C. OF C. MEMBERS

Additions to the Tryon Chamber of Commerce for the new year include A&P Store, Buckingham Inn, Pierce-Wilson Motor Co., Owen's Pharmacy, J. T. Arledge, Thermal Belt Telephone Co., Pine Crest Inn.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients admitted to St. Luke's Hospital include Joan Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Rice Jr., of Route 1, Tryon; and Mrs. Etta Bradshaw, Lynn. There were no discharges.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McSwain of Route 1, Landrum, are the parents of a son born October 20, at 1:30 p. m.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY

A Democratic Rally will be held at Mill Spring school Tuesday night at 7:30 with unnamed state leader as chief speaker.

A similar meeting will be held Thursday night at Saluda, according to County Chairman W. H. McDonald.