

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTLRED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 261 TRYON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, OCT. 22ND, 1952

Weather Tuesday: high 59, low 28, Rel. Hum. 34. . . Saturday is the last day for new citizens to register to vote in the General Election of Nov. 4th. The Boy Scouts of the county are making plans to hang paper Liberty bells on the door knobs of all citizens as a reminder to them to vote. The bells do not tell how one should vote, but VOTE for the persons of their choice. The larger the number of voters who participate in the election the better chance the people will have good government. We have two great men as candidates for president. They have the respect of millions of people. Which ever one wins will have his hands full, and will have the support of the majority of the people. No president can carry out his own ideas unless he has able advisors and a Congress to support him. It is very important to go to the polls and vote for our county and state officers. They are the starting points as advisors to men higher up. . . A reception committee for the Tryon Chamber of Commerce annual dinner meeting on Monday, Oct. 27th at Oak Hall has been named as follows: Mrs. E. E. Missildine, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Craig, Archie L. Covington, Mrs. Caroline Hale, John W. Cowan. . . Thursday night is the

Continued On Back Page

Miss Washburn At Rotary

Frank K. McFarland Jr. will be in charge of the Tryon Rotary Club program Friday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall hotel and will have as guest speaker, Miss Molly Washburn who was graduated from Cornell University in June and made a summer visit to Europe.

JUNIOR GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Norville Holcombe of Spartanburg, was the guest speaker at the first meeting of the Landrum Junior Garden Club. She urged the girls to be "good garden club members." After showing colored pictures of several roses, Mrs. Holcombe displayed a collection of sea shells. Each of the girls was given several small shells and asked to start a collection of her own.

Dorothy Morrow was elected president, Ann Wright, vice president and Nancy Morris, secretary and treasurer.

Following the meeting, punch and cookies were served by the sponsors: Mrs. J. L. Petty of the Weeders, Mrs. Tommy Wright of the Landrum Club, Mrs. Fred Crain of the Thrifty Club and Mrs. Joe Bagwell of the Spaders.

Mrs. B. Frank Carruth, president of the Council presided.

Census report shows that 764 bales of cotton were ginned in Polk County, N. C. from the crop of 1952 prior to Oct. 1, 1952 as compared with 226 bales for the crop of 1951.

EPH GOODLOE: "I see by the papers that John L. Lewis came-out for Stevenson. Well, when Lewis comes-out for anything you can look for a coal winter."—W. M. Bissell.