Vol. 25—No. 263 TRYON, N. C. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1952

Weather Thursday: high 78, low 31, Rel. Hum. 32. . . Saturday is last day to register. The Democrats will end the day with a big rally at Harmon Field with Congressman Woodrow Jones as chief speaker. A free fish supper is offered to all who attend. The Appleton, Wis., Post-Crescent of Oct. 15 had a four column story and pictures about the retirement of Ernst Mahler as executive vice-president of Kimberly-Clark Paper Co. of Neenah. He was succeeded last Friday by John R. Kimberly, grandson of John Alfred Kimberly, one of the founders of the company. Mr. Mahler retired after 38 years of service in accordance with the corporation's retirement plan. Mr. Kimberly who has been vice president in charge of sales started with the company in 1924. He became assistant general superintendent and a director in 1937. Mr. Mahler will remain as a director and alternate member of the executive committee and will be available as a consultant. Both men have homes in Tryon and are identified with the social and civic affairs of this community during the part time residence. The Wisconsin paper said: "Since joining Kimberly-Clark in 1914, Mahler has earned recognition from the industry as an outstanding exponent of research in pulp and paper
