CURB REPORTER

Weather Friday: high 82, low 47, Rel. Hum. 38; Saturday high 79, low 48, Rel. Hum. 44; Sunday high 70, low 37, Rel. Hum. 45. . . Asheville churches are praying for Town Manager C. O. Smith. Tryon says the situation here is worse and that everybody must save water in order for all to have enough for essential needs. We must not water lawn or waste water in any way, until the emergency is over. SAVE WATER. Hattie McDaniel, famous Negro movie actress died yesterday of cancer.

Nelson Jackson Honored

The Congregational Church and Sunday School gave a surprise party Friday night at the Church House in honor of Nelson Jackson and presented to him a bronze plaque in appreciation of his inspiring leadership as Sunday School Superintendent for thirty-one years.

An additional surprise was the presence of his daughter, Mrs. Louis F. Bunte and family of Atlanta who were let in on the secret to take part in the program. Mr. Bunte and Mrs. Nelson Jackson II sang two duets; Mrs. Bunte was the accompanist and young Laura Marie Bunte gave a piano solo.

Prior to the program Mrs. Howard Frankenfield gave several piano numbers. Rev. Orville White was in charge of the program and Seth M. Vining gave a brief summary of the improvements made in the Sunday School under the leadership of Mr. Jackson. Cake, Coffee and punch were served to about 150 members.
