

ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 266 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, OCT. 30TH, 1952

Weather Wednesday: High 51, low 32, Rel. Hum. 49 . . . The minks may be in disgrace in many places, especially Washington, but Rev. Henry Hearn who advertised his chinchillas for sale has found them very popular in this section. He has had many visitors to see them. He says raising chinchillas is an interesting and profitable hobby . . . The Tryon Lions Club is selling seals at one cent each to raise money to help the blind. Each month they supply from eight to ten people with glasses through cooperation of the Welfare Department. They need funds. Average gift is $2.

W. McGuinn is president of the club . . . Recent arrivals at Melrose Lodge include Miss Katherine Fonda, Colebrook, Conn.; Miss Velma Hoffman, Asheville; Mr. and Mrs. John Stocks, Chicago; Mrs. Paula Gilmore, Miss Gloria Gilmore, Mrs. Alex Abercrombie of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Ward of Evanson . . . Lieut. James M. Baker Jr., of Camp Lejeune will spend the week-end at the Lodge with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baker. . . . New arrivals in Tryon at the Thomas Clark apartment on Godshaw Hill are Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Burnette of Hartford, Mich., formerly of Evanston. Mr.

Continued on Back Page

Rev. Pruyn Speaks for U. N.

The Rev. H. A. Pruyn, minister of the Tryon Methodist Church, spoke on United Nations at the Kiwanis meeting Tuesday at Oak Hall hotel. Mr. Pruyn was attached with the British Forces as a YMCA leader for two years and gave many illustrations of brotherhood among men of different nations. The speaker said that men everywhere, regardless of race and color, can live together as brothers.

Mr. Pruyn believes that the United Nations is our only hope for peace and universal brotherhood. He praised President Woodrow Wilson and the late President Roosevelt for the part they played in bringing about a world organization.

Guests of the club were Kiwanians Earl Penney, Hendersonville; Sam Goodman and A. W. Koon of Spartanburg. Roy France was in charge of the program.

SALUDA NEWS NOTES

By Miss Julia Ann Johnson

Tuesday night, Nov. 4th, will be the last night of the singing school at Cross Roads in Henderson County. Roy L. Johnson, teacher, invites the public.

Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Arledge Sr., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Arledge Jr., in Montgomery, Ala.

Sunday, Nov. 2, there will be a singing at the Southside Baptist Church in Landrum, at 2 p. m. Roy L. Johnson in charge.

Miss Doris Bell Ashley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford Ashley and Richard Luther Thompson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Thompson Sr., were married Sunday, Oct. 26th at 2:30

Continued on Back Page