

ENTRLED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 271 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, NOV. 6th, 1952

Weather Wednesday: High 73, low 33, Rel. Hum. 24 . . . General Eisenhower is in Augusta, Ga., playing golf, favorite place and sport of the late President William Howard Tatt, later Chief Justice, who died in Augusta . . . Peter Mahler will be in charge of the Rotary program Friday and will present Chaplain Lippard of the hospital at Valdese. Geo. Vance's Rotaragraph thought of the week: "Success comes in cans; failures in can'ts" . . . Now that the Republicans have control of the house, thousands of Democrats lose their jobs. Congressman in Rayburn of Texas who presided over the National Democratic convention will lose the Speakership of the House to Congressman Joseph Martin . . . Congressman Sabbath, 86, of Chicago, died this morning. Was oldest house member in point of service. . . Jim Ferguson made a hole in one on No. 2 at Tryon Country Club Wednesday; was playing with Baxter Haynes, Dr. J. T. Lynn and Newton Frye of Chicago. Fred Tredup of Chicago made a hole in one on Nov. 8. Both men will receive silver trophies from Lucky Strike. . . . Keith Arledge of Hendersonville will address the Tryon Baptist Brotherhood Friday at 7 p. m. . . . Presbyterian Food Sale, Ballenger's Saturday, 9 a. m.

GLEN T. KNIGHT SR.

Funeral services for Glen T. Knight Sr., who died of a heart attack Wednesday will probably be held Saturday morning. Final arrangements had not been completed at press time today.

Mr. Knight was born at Bloomfield, Iowa, 62 years ago and moved when a small child to Columbus, Ohio, where he grew up. He attended Kenyon Military School for boys at Gambier, Ohio, Asheville School, Asheville, N. C., and was graduated from Cornell University. He entered the automobile business at Wheeling, W. Va., in 1918 as a Pierce-Arrow dealer, later Essex-Hudson and when he retired in 1945 on account of his heart he had the Packard agency. After one winter in Florida he and Mrs. Knight moved to Tryon to make their home and bought the former Bishop Touret house from Mrs. Wm. R. Kales.

Since moving to Tryon he has been active in the Rotary Club, a deacon in the Congregational Church and salesman for various products.

The deceased is survived by his widow the former Miss Marguerite Rossing of Pittsburgh; one son, Glen T. Knight Jr., of Moorehead City, N. C., and 4 grandchildren.

Edward R. Goodyear Speaker For Garden Club

Edward R. Goodyear, Tryon florist, will be the guest speaker at the Thrifty Garden Club of Landrum, Tuesday, Nov. 11, at 3 p. m., at the home of Mrs. John G. Landrum with Mrs. L. V. Mathis as co-hostess.

Mr. Goodyear will speak on holiday arrangements with dried materials and accessories.