Vol. 25—No. 272 TRYON, N. C. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1952

Weather Thursday: High 69, low 40, Rel. Hum. 28 . . . The nation rapidly getting back to normal after the election. The chief interest includes who will get the big appointments for the cabinet, diplomatic corps, and the thousands of patronage jobs over the nation. In North Carolina Congressman-Elect Charles Raper Jonas of Lincolnton will be the big boss as far as state jobs go. Eisenhower is playing golf at Augusta. . . Dr. J. H. Hilton professor at State College, has been named president of Iowa State.

Eisenhower has accepted Truman's invitation to have representatives sit in with top government men now and get familiar with the setup before the change over in January. . . . North Carolina District Garden Clubs met in Tryon at the Congregational Church House Thursday and had lunch at Pine Crest Inn. . . National Fox Hunt in the Smokies postponed on account of forest fire dangers. Many forests are on fire and there is a big water shortage all over this area. The Tryon supply is getting desperate and still some people have been seen wasting water. . . . Mill Spring Ruritan Club seeking a new post office building. . . Night football game and homecoming ceremonies tonight at Harmon Field.
