

ENTIRED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 274 TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, NOV. 11TH, 1952

Weather Monday: High 61, low 49, rain .04, Rel. Hum. 87 . . . This nice drizzle is good for the lawn and hundreds of shrubs. Let it drizzle and rain. The earth is starving for water . . . Christmas is in the atmosphere. You can tell it by the advertising in The Bulletin. It's only about seven weeks now. . . . All the women are excited about two big events on Wednesday: The St. Agnes Guild Bazaar which opens at 11 at the Parish House and the Avant Electric Co., Cooking School which opens at 9:30 at Tryon school auditorium. This will be two days for the benefit of those who can't attend the first day. Another school will be held Thursday morning at 9:30. Prizes are to be given away . . . Tryon Kiwanis Club meets today at 1 p. m., and will see a film called "The American Harvest" showing the converting of our raw materials into the finished products. . . . The Lions Club also meets at Oak Hall today. No report on the program. The Lion calendar reports birthdays today, Armistice Day, for Mrs. Paul Culberson, Frank B. Edwards and Estelle G. Brown. . . Dr. George F. Taylor address the annual meeting of the Spartanburg Chapter of the Red Cross today at Trinity Methodist Church . . . Trygve Lie has resigned as secretary.
Continued on Back Page

Held By Coroner's Jury

Royall Fowler, Tryon poet and driver of the English make automobile which wrecked last Wednesday and fatally injured Thomas W. Owens, 31, of Columbus, was bound over to the Polk County Superior Court Monday night by a Coroner's Jury.

The accident happened on Highway 108 between Hatch Mill and Midway Church. Highway Patrolman W. R. Boyles stated Monday that he had interviewed Fowler in St. Luke's Hospital where he is a patient as a result of the wreck, and that Fowler stated the steering mechanism of the car went wrong and caused him to lose control of the car.

Owens, Columbus Town Councilman, and business man died Sunday night at St. Luke's Hospital. He was a veteran of World War II, a member of the W. O. W. and of the Columbus Baptist Church. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 3 p. m., at the Columbus Baptist Church.

Coroner Otis Dalton, who swore out a warrant before Magistrate Monte Dedman, stated that Fowler is charged with manslaughter and will be held under $2,000 bond for his appearance at the January term of the Polk County Superior Court.

Serving on the Coroner's Jury were Richard Davidson, Charlie Gosnell, Roy Dalton, Earl Porter, Lonnie Foster and Willie Spurlin.

Patrolman Boyles stated that Owen's death was the third highway fatality in Polk County this year.

Since World War II the number of vegetable gardens on farms has decreased.