

ENTRÉD AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25 No. 276 TRYON, N. C. THURSDAY, NOV. 13TH, 1952

Weather Tuesday: High 55, low 45, rain .33, Rel. Hum. 87; Wednesday high 68, low 41, Rel. Hum. 38 During the heat of the election we failed to take note of the beginning of the fourth year of the Toy House by Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Guilbert. The Toy House in the past under Misses Vance and Yale helped to make Tryon famous and the Guilberts are doing it too and we are fortunate to have them revive the famous place which was closed following the retirement of its founders. . . Duplicate Bridge tonight at Oak Hall. John Landrum has Rotary program Friday and will present Henry

The Gay Blades Garden Club will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. Bob Adams with Mrs. Frank McFarland Jr., as chief speaker.

Mrs. A. C. Walton of Richmond, Va., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Theo Kerhulas and family.

Mrs. A. M. Stone and Mrs. E. F. Stone Sr., have returned to Marietta, S. C., after a visit in Tryon.

Mrs. Leo Milhaupt entertained last Friday in honor of Miss Ann Ruth Pack, bride-elect of Inman.

Tryon Tigers sharpened up their offense in a long scrimmage session Wednesday in preparation for their encounter at Brevard Friday night.

Rev. Archie Ellis, President North Carolina Baptists

Rev. R. Archie Ellis, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Salisbury, was elected president of the State Baptist Convention held at Winston-Salem Wednesday.

Mr. Ellis was elected over three other ministers by the unanimous vote of messengers representing 750,000 Baptists. The 36-year-old minister is the husband of the former Miss Lois Avant of Tryon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Avant. He and his family spend most of their vacations in Tryon. Mr. Ellis who has made an outstanding record at Salisbury where he has just completed a new church, is a former pastor of the Landrum First Baptist Church and the Wadesboro Baptist Church. He is a Kiwanian and civic leader of Salisbury. He has been called to many large cities to conduct revival meetings.

The State Conventon also approved full support of a million and a half dollars for Wake Forest College; approved the borrowing of $95,000 to build Mars Hill Church, and $150,000 new wing for Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem.

SALUDA BOOK CLUB

The Saluda Book Club met on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 11, at the home of Mrs. A. A. Atkins with Mrs. J. H. Morse as co-hostess.

After a brief business meeting, Mrs. Dan Pace reviewed the book, Albert Schweitzer, Genius in the Jungle, by Joseph Gallomb.

The meeting adjourned with the reading of the collect. During the social hour which followed refreshments were served by the hostesses.—Kathleen G. Stephenson, Club Reporter.