

[Est. 1-31-28]

Published Daily Except
Saturday and Sunday

[5c Per Copy]

ENTLED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AUGUST 20, 1928, AT THE POSTOFFICE
AT TRYON, N. C. UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS, MARCH 3, 1879

THE TRYON DAILY BULLETIN

The World's Smallest DAILY Newspaper.

Seth M. Vining, Editor

Vol. 25—No. 277

TRYON, N. C.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1952

Weather Thursday: High 68, low 29, Rel. Hum. 44. . . . The battle in Korea continues to be a see-saw affair with first one side and then the other winning points . . . Truman and Eisenhower will confer Tuesday . . . A. H. Feller, United Nations counselor, jumped to his death Thursday as result of overwork and strain in dealing with United Nations problems . . . Governor Dewey conferring with General Eisenhower in Augusta today . . . . . Funeral for Phillip Murray, Labor Leader, held in Pittsburgh Thursday . . . . About 2,000 visitors expected in Spartanburg today for inauguration of President Francis Pendleton Gaines Jr., Governor James F. Byrnes and Dr. Games' father, the president of Washington and Lee, and a number of other college presidents and distinguished officials. . . . . St. Luke's Hospital clinic will be held Tuesday, November 18th, at 10 a. m., with Dr. George Vosburgh Jr., as clinician . . . L. E. Phenner has returned to Chicago after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Kimberly at Eskdale Farm. . . . Philip Walker, managing director of A. E. Reed & Co., London, England, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Mahler at Chinquapin Farm, left Friday morning by plane for New

Continued On Back Page

SALUDA MAN CRUSHED TO DEATH BY TRACTOR

Donald Revis, 41, of Saluda Route 1, was crushed and burned to death by a farm tractor in a logging accident Thursday about 4 p. m., on Piney Mountain, according to Chief of Police Fred Morris of Saluda.

Revis was hauling poplar blocks down the mountain with Herbert Pace, 18, and Grady Gosnell, 18, both of Saluda Route No. 1, at the time of the tragedy, Mr. Morris said.

It is reported that the tractor struck a stump, reared upwards and then toppled on the three men. Pace and Gosnell leaped to safety but Revis was pinned beneath the wreckage and the gasoline from the tank of the tractor burst into flames, and all efforts to extricate Mr. Revis were impossible.

The gasoline exploding also set fire to the tractor and woodlands in the vicinity. Revis' body was burned beyond recognition before it could be removed, Chief Morris stated.

Patrolman J. E. Ramsey of the State Highway Department, in company with Polk County Coroner Otis Dalton, viewed the scene of the accident, and Mr. Dalton stated that no inquest is planned. The body was taken to the McFarland Funeral Home in Tryon.

Revis was a native and lifelong resident of the Saluda section of Polk and Henderson counties, and had engaged in farming, wood work, logging operations and rock masonry.

Surviving are the widow, the former Mss Arlee Rhodes; three sons, McRae, Steve and Stanley

Continued on Back Page