Kiwanians Hear 4-H'ers

Joe K. Davis had charge of the Tryon Kiwanis Club program on Tuesday at 1 p. m., at Oak Hall hotel and presented some leaders of the county 4-H Club program, including Miss Elizabeth Wright, assistant home agent. Miss Wright told of the general theme and purpose of the organization.

Winners of the Home Beautification contest sponsored by the Tryon Kiwanis Club were Bill and Joe Bowers, tied for first place; Miss Dorothy Searcy for second place and Miss Marlene McSwain for third place. Each told of his achievement in making his home more attractive, planting flowers, lawn, building walls, moving roadways and walks, pruning and cleaning up and repairing the property in general. Miss McSwain is one of the top 4-H Club calf owners in the county and has won a free trip to the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago this month. She also played the piano for the Kiwanians in the absence of Craig Thomas who was in Massachusetts.

The Rev. H. A. Pruyn was inducted into the membership of the club by Holland Brady, chairman of the membership committee.

Rupert Koch of Hendersonville was a guest of the club.

Polk County men attending the Boy Scouter Round-up meeting at Gardner-Webb College Tuesday were County Chairman R. C. Burnett, B. B. Flynn, Holland Brady Jr., Rev. T. C. Bailey, Dr. Gordon N. Graham, Rev. Henry O. Hearn, Douglas Roper, J. T. Arledge, K. A. Bowen, Elbert H. Arledge, Nelson Jackson, and Mrs. Jackson.
